So, you're about to take another plunge!

Presenting: This fun opportunity to join other soon-to-be-grads in 24 hours of reflection, relaxation, and recreation as you consider your university years and look to the next steps in your vocational and life journey!

Pondering: What have my years at UIndy really been about? What experiences will I carry with me as I move on from my undergraduate experience? What sort of significant post-college endeavor am I moving toward? And much more!

Retreat Leaders: Micah Weedman, a dynamic, thought-provoking leader who has served as a Resident in Campus Ministry at UIndy and who has taught and written on many of the questions we will be considering. Dr. Lang Brownlee, university co-chaplain and Paul Gabonay, director of Career Services, will assist in facilitating the retreat.

Location: Bradford Woods, on SR 67 southwest of Indy, is a beautiful wooded area that offers the peace and privacy to really enjoy our time away together. We will be staying and sharing room accommodations in the charming manor house with bedding and meals provided.

Cost: Only $25.00 covers lodging, Saturday meals, and materials for this wonderful retreat experience! The special Friday night meal at Gray Brothers Cafeteria on the way down to Bradford Woods is compliments of Ecumenical & Interfaith Programs. Space is limited, so we need your registration and non-refundable check or cash payment by Friday, March 7 to insure a spot (you may inquire after this time but we cannot guarantee a space). Submit your registration form and check (payable to the University of Indianapolis) or cash (best delivered in person) to the Ecumenical and Interfaith Programs Office, Schwitzer Student Center 203, University of Indianapolis, Indianapolis, IN 46227. Please note: If the cost of this experience presents a problem, remember that a Greyhound Adventures grant is a possibility.
